Magness will probably be carried by Philadelphia, where the Dolphin now lies, for a court-martial.

He was arrested last night as heleft is apartment in the Seelbach Hote, and had no sooner reached the jail than be sent for his wife, asking that she arrange to cash a check or sell one of the bonds found upon the alleged deserter's person, in the effort to obtain his possible release. When found Magness had nearly $25,000 in bonds and gash upon his person, which, he said, had been given to him by his wife, who is wealthy in her own name.

It is said that Magness and Miss Gorman were married on September 5, in Louisville. The alleged deserter was traced by the naval authorities by the published Washington acounts of Miss Gorman's reported marriage to a "C. J. Hartlove."

Magness Active in Laurel. At Laurel, Md., the utmost surprise was expressed this morning. Magness lived there several months during the past summer, in order that he might be near Miss Gorman, it is said, and identified himself with all the affairs of the village. He practiced with the Laurel baseball team, became a mem-ber of the Laurel Military Band, and welcomed at a number of social

It was known in Laurel that the family of Miss Gorman had looked with marked disfavor on the friendship between her and young Magnes, and had done everything in their power to terminate it. Magness, it is asserted, was never a visitor at the Gorman home. His home was in Baltimore.

Miss Gorman was the favorite daugh. If the Democratic labor plank, the President asks some pertinent questions to which he desires categorical answers. The letter was written to Senator Knox to congratulate him upon his speech delivered in Philadelphia last Tuesday night.

Miss Gorman was the favorite daugher of the late Senator Gorman, and ne only unmarried one at the time of the Senator's death ast Monday for Louisville and joined morning. Mrs. Johnson, a sister of the bride, confirmed the statement that Mrs. Gorman had gone to Baltimore, but other than this referred all questioners to her husband's office. Here it was said Mr. Johnson was absent, the impression being that he had gone to Baltimore. It is believed, therefore, that a family conference was held this afternoon between Mrs. Gorman, her eider son. State Senator A. P. Gorman, and the Democratic platform, in connection with the interpretation put upon it

Mr. Johnson.

State Senator Arthur P. Gorman expressed the belief that the large amount of cash and bonds found in Magness' possession probably belonged to his sister. He understood, he said, that a marriage had taken place early in September.

Pastor Ignorant of Romance.

The Rev. Frederick D. Power, pastor the Vermont Avenue Christian Church, who has known the Gorman Church, who has known the Gorman family for a score of years, said the published reports that he had been requested to perform the marriage ceremony for Magness and Miss Gorman, and had consented, were erroneous. Neither be, nor other members of the church, he said, were ignerant of all details concerning the romance.

"The family and Mrs. Magness, as she is now known, although I knew her husband as Hartlove, had the sympathy perhaps of the entire congregation," he said. "Miss Gorman had taken an active interest in our work for years, was especially interested in charity work among the poor, and in the Sunday school, and it was largely through her endeavors, I understood, that the three Dolphin musicians consented to play, with remuneration, each Sunday."

Gompers' Demand.

The gist of the bill demanded by organized labor through Mr. Gempers, provides chiefly for two things: First-After forbidding any Federal judge to Issue a restraining order for an injunction in any labor dispute, except to prevent irreparable injury to property or a property right, it spe-cifically provides that "no right * * * to carry provides that no light to carry on business of any particular kind, or at any particular place, or at all, shall be construed, held, considered, or treated as property or as constitut-ing a property right." "Will Bryan state publicly, definitely, categorically, whether he accepts the program outlined in this bill, as Mr. Gompers in hi, letter has assured the public that he does?" "Mr. Bryan failed in his letter of cceptance to discuss this labor plank of his party's platform. So to discuss It since."

"This," said the Fresident in conclusion, "is admirably sound common sense, the opinion of the counsel to a great labor body, indorsed and adopted as its own by that labor body.
